

FIRST NATIONAL BANK IN DALLAS

ARTHUR A. SMITH, ECONOMIST
VICE PRESIDENT

December 5, 1961

Dear Jim:

For old time's sake, can you buy for me four tickets to the Cotton Bowl game here January 1, 1962? Tickets are so scarce here I have not been able to obtain any, and I am hurting. A very good friend of mine in Missouri has requested these. We never go ourselves because most Dallas people let out-of-town visitors have first claim on seats.

This year is quite tough because Old Miss and Texas are attracting lots of attention.

Best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur A. Smith
